Subject: Does NEPmap match Santa Monica Bay NEP study area assumptions?

Hi Tom,

We were wondering if you have looked at the NEPmap to make sure that the study area depicted there matches the SMB NEP's expectation of its study area. Can you take a look and verify that it correct/incorrect and let us know? If it needs to be corrected, then we will help you get in touch with the right folks at headquarters.

Here is the link to the metadata: <https://catalog.data.gov/dataset/nepmap-national-estuary-program-mapper>

You can find the study area designated on the NEP Boundaries file on this web site, linked from that NEPmap page:

Thanks.

Best,

Erica
